Two Hurt In Head-On Collision Tuesday

A two-car accident at approximately 10:20 a.m. on Tuesday, November 30, results on was attempting to pass, ferred to the Elba General drivers of both vehicles.

According to witnesses, the wreck, which occurred on Highway 84 near McCall's store, happened when a Ford Fairlane driven by Ross Lawson of New. Brockton attempted to pass a car and crossed into the path of a Chevette driven by Mrs. Cynthia Parton of Texass.

Out to pass and saw the little red car (belonging to Parton) coming. The car then tried to go off on the shoulder, but the red car hit it almost head on."

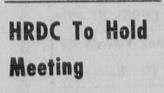

The impact of the collision resulted in Mrs. Parton being in the car, to his home following the wreck, and took care of the child throughout the day.

Police Car Involved In Accident?

This Elba police car appears to have been involved in an accident. However it was raining Saturday night and enterprising police get into the police station without getting wet.

Readers of The Elba Clipper will notice a full page ad this week from the merchants of Elba, encouraging Christmas shoppers to shop at home. This is a theme we have preached for many years, so it is nothing new for readers to know we feel this way. Several years ago The Elba Exchange Bank put a good bit of money into a "Shop Elba First" campaign. A real important thing about the ad this week is the fact that the merchants ASK for the ad, it was not a case of us trying to raise advertising revenue! They got up the wording and the list of merchants themselves and said, "We want the business of our friends and neighbors, most of all."

We issued a warning about the dangers of getting killed by deer hunters in last week's paper. Little did we know that such an accident was about to happen in the woods between

Ye ole editor received a personal note in the mail Wednesday from Alabama Civil Defense Director C. J. Sullivan. It seems he is being considered for a position with the Carter administration in Washington. Now, C. J. has been a long-time supporter for Governor Wallace, having been one of his first people I know of who were working for "Judge Wallace" in his campaign for governor. PLAYOFF ENTER FINAL ROUND

The playoffs have a few new faces and a few familiar ones as they enter the final round In Class 4A, Mt. Brook will be trying for it's second straight title when they meet Murphy. The Panthers from Mobile could quiet a lot of critics with a win over Birmingham's powerhouse, but Mt. Brook boasts two All-State backs in Major Ogilivie and Joe Burg, and I'm betting on the men from up north to make it two straight MT. BROOK 32 - MURPHY 20

The Class 3A title game will be a rematch between Athens and Andalusia. Last year Athens broke loose with a second half scoring barrage to dump the Dogs, but this year should be different. Coach Donnie Sharpe's team has methodically trampled over 13 straight opponents, and last week humiliated Lanett 35-0. The difference this year will be that Athens no longer has Freddie Smith around to stop Andy's Bobby Johnson! ANDALUSIA 15 - ATHENS 8

The Class 2A title match will pit Eclectic against Red Bay. Eclectic (12-1) blistered a good Georgianna team 35-0 to reach the finals, but will be tangling with a 'true' powerhouse in unbeaten Red Bay (13-0). The ADVERTISER ranked Red Bay No. 1 in their final poll, but I disagree. I see it: ECLECTIC 27 - RED BAY 20

The Class A championship clash will have Addison (13-0) meeting Brantley (13-0). Brantley has rolled over it's playoff foes by a combined score of 86-20, but really hasn't put it together offensively since the win over Houston Academy. Thi marks Addison's fourth straight playoff appearance, and the boys from north Alabama claim this is their year to take it all. If Brantley can put it all together this week they could take it. all! If not, they're in trouble. I'm bakeing Brantley ... BRANTLEY 17 - ADDISON 14

TIGERS CAGERS ROLLING ALONG

The Elba Tiger basketball team has surprised some folks by getting off to a 3-1 record. Elba Coach Mance Daughtry has proven to be a winning coach, and this year he has a starting line-up that will challenge anyone. At center is 6-3 James Ray Daniels. Daniels is averaging over 15 points a game, and is the sparkplug in the Tiger offense James Ray has 'hiccup-quick' hands and good leaping ability which makes him a dominating rebounder Sylvester 'Chip' Goosby manns one forward post, and is o to his best start ever. Goosby is scoring at a 10-point clip, and is pulling down an average of 18 rebounds a game. Chip uses his size to outmuscle his opponents The two guards are James Smith and Larry Phillips Smith is a 5-10, 165-pounder, and has surprised many people by averaging 10-points a game. Smith is a quick, aggressive player, and uses his jumping ability to grab more than his

Phillips, a 5-10, 190-pounder, is the Tiger's playmaker and possesses a deadly outside shot. Phillips guards the base-line on Elba's 1-3-1 defense, and is also a good board-man. The Tigers have proven reserves in Willie Lowe, Ken Martin, Claude Collier, Geoff Parker, David Ware, and Stanley Coleman, and this group should help Elba to a fine season

Answerline: This year, the National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health released a major study on the adult use of obacco and found that a large roportion of smokers share the attitudes of nonsmokers! For example, people in both groups want to see smoking allowed in favor of a total ban on cigrette advertising, and they fee nat business management is right in prohibiting smoking in the workplace. Also, oneed said that they found it annoying to be near a person smoking a cigarette. A dieter asks: 'Are they going

ANSWER: (b) The city is Answer: (b) The city is Answer: Cold Weather Costs Money!

If you like to SAVE MONEY, follow these heating - season guidelines from The Southeast Alabama Gas District

1. Be sure your Heating Equipment is operating properly -rwhether you burn gas, fuel oil, or electricity.

2. Arrange your Furniture to help warm air circulate easily, and keep all Heating Vents and Return Vents clean and unobstructed.

3. Keep a COOLER HOME this year than you did last year, and when you leave home for a day or more, set the thermostat down to 60 or below.

4. Be sure all Doors And Windows are Weather-Stripped, and keep them tightly closed.

6. Close off unused or 'seldom-used Rooms.

7. CHECK INSULATION! If yours is sub-standard, have it brought up to standard. Sub-standard insulation may cost you many dollars a month in wasted fuel; adequate insulation will pay for itself in a very few
